

A 3-D virtual space for all your favorite things on the internet.

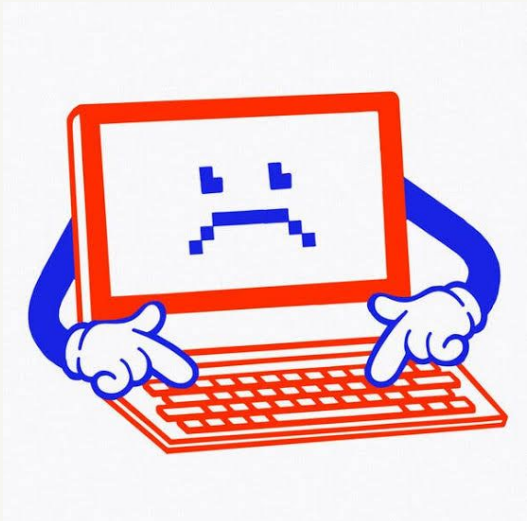

Track: VR, web prototype

German Dominguez, Levi Schroeder, Jawan Gaines

Can we surf again?

A stale internet needs fresh ways to traverse.

Introduce cozy, productive spaces to combat a saturated and overwhelming digital world.

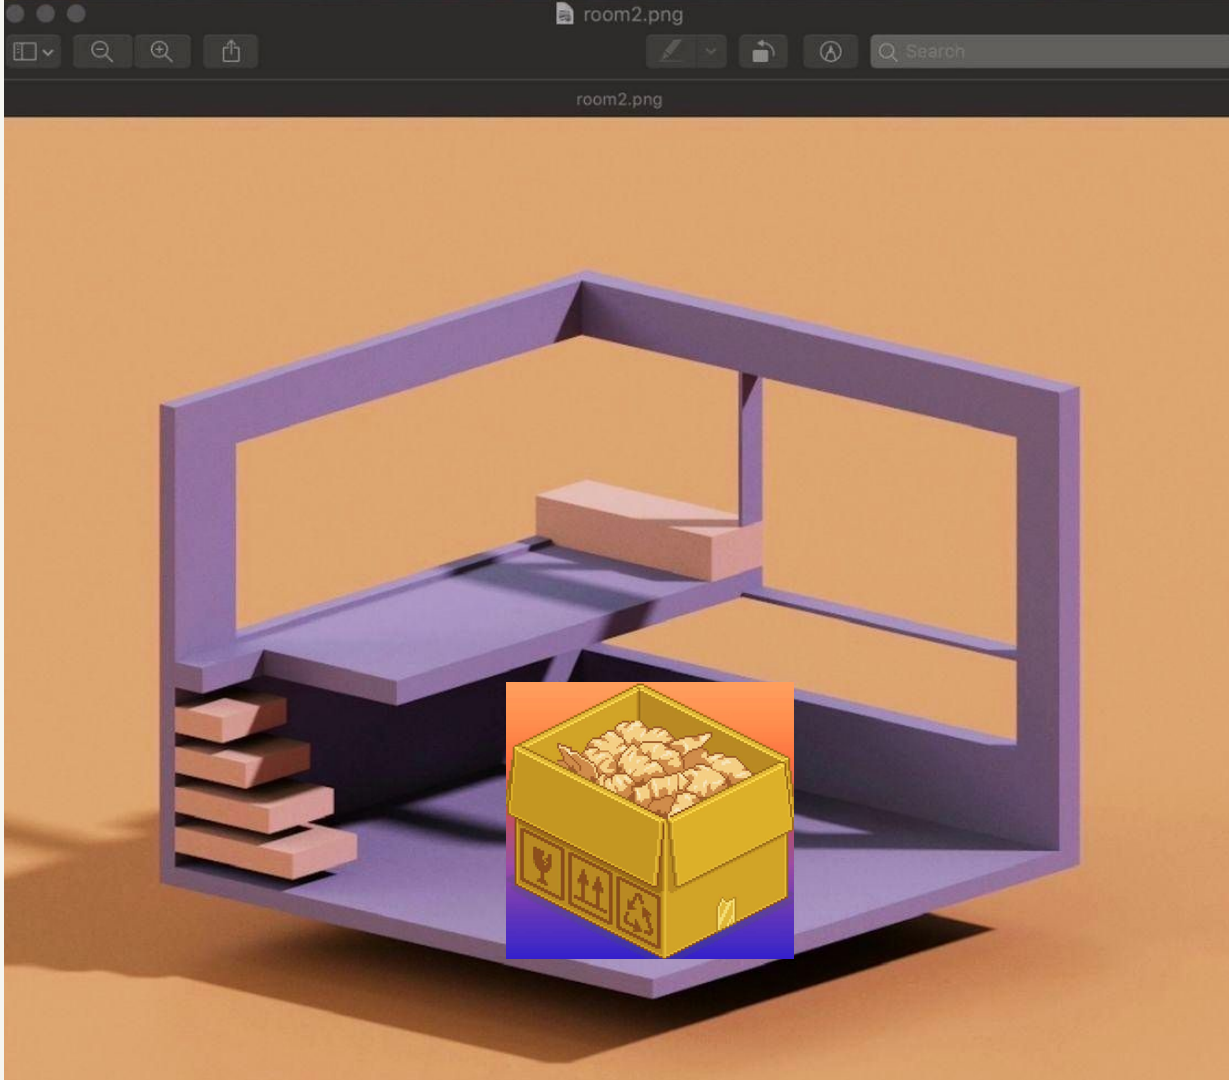

It starts with your space

What have you contributed to online?

What have you saved?

It starts with your space

What would these experiences look like as tangibles?

How would it feel to be in a space with all your digital belongings?

Why VR?

Spatial memory

Personalized environment

Visualization of media by recognition

Novelty and intrigue

Share and explore spaces

Connect and inspire

Collaborate and build new areas of knowledge

Misc. Palace

A neighborhood for the internet's shared knowledge and recreation.
